

Gloucester House "Lobstah" Bake and Boston's Sam Adams Brewery

CT OES
Aug. 14, 2020

LV: 7:00 AM State & Divine Commuter Lot, North Haven, CT
7:30 AM Fienemann Rd. Commuter Lot, Farmington, CT

We will depart for Gloucester, MA today making necessary stops along the way. We will enjoy a New England Lobster Bake at the Gloucester House Restaurant in Gloucester, MA. This restaurant offers the perfect setting for this New England dining tradition. Lunch will include New England Clam Chowder, Home Made Corn Bread, One Hot Steamed Lobster OR 1/2 Barbecued Chicken, Fresh Corn on the Cob, Drawn Butter and dessert. After our lunch, we will head for Boston's Quincy Market. Here you will have time for some shopping and exploring in this historic Boston Landmark. Opened in 1826 to the public, Quincy Market is still serving both locals and visitors of Boston today. Later this afternoon, we will take a tour of the Famous Sam Adams Brewery. You'll learn all about beer ingredients and the brewing process. You can taste the roasted malts and smell classic German Noble hops that give Boston Lager the distinct flavor and aroma that have made it an American original. After our tour, we will depart for home.
